SVP	Distinctive Person to Person help to individuals and families. No act of charity is beyond the Society's remit. It is a group, which aims to provide as wide a range of service as possible to those in need, regardless of class, creed or colour. Visit the lonely, elderly or sick in their own homes, in hospitals or in sheltered accommodation.	Frank Halligan 876299	Genuine interest in supporting families and individuals over a period of time. Self motivated to visit as appropriate the sick or elderly. Patience. Fundraising and gathering of items needed as and when appropriate.	1 meeting every 3 weeks about ¾ hour. Variable lengths of time each week following meetings
Cafod	Link with CAFOD, publicise the 2 fast days and organise the collections, bank and send off the collected money.	Fr Harry Stratton Need for someone to take on this link	Someone with an interest in this area, willing to undertake the tasks	4 hours twice a year?
Fairtrade	Awareness raising leading up to and during fairtrade fortnight. No extra help needed at present	Margaret Waring
Justice & Peace	This group used to exist as an umbrella group for CAFOD, Christian Aid, Fairtrade and other such organisations. Would be good to resurrect it as an action group not a bureaucratic block.		Someone willing to lead such a group
Christian Aid	Each May, for over 40 years, volunteers from St Paul's parish community have joined the other Christian churches to play our part in the annual house-to-house envelope collection on behalf of Christian Aid. We do this as part of our commitment to Justice and peace. The collection is the focal point of Christian Aid Week and is the major source of funding for the charity. Christian Aid works to address the desperate need of the world's poorest people, particularly those in developing countries	Fiona Kennon 877278	Physically fit, able to walk house to house and carry bag with envelopes of change in.	Just during Christian Aid week – varied depending on number of volunteers BUT can volunteer for as little or as much as you feel able/willing.
