Pentecost Sunday 3rd & 4th June 2017

The Spirit still at work

It would be wrong to see today's Feast simply as a remembrance of what happened nearly 2000 years ago. The Feast of Pentecost celebrates the gift of the Holy Spirit into the lives of all who are open to the love of God. Our feast today reminds us of the Spirit's unseen presence in our lives, and calls on us to invite the Spirit to empower and enlighten us. And how can we see the work of the Spirit in our midst? We only have to look at the love and care in so many aspects of our lives and community. Whatever is good, true, noble, or joyful, there the Spirit is at work. For those who bring love and care to their families, for those who look after the sick and the housebound, for those who teach, who seek the truth, who work to foster the good of society, and so many other aspects of human life; there the Spirit is at work.

Come Holy Spirit fill the hearts of all the faithful,
And renew the face of our world.

ARE YOU A CATHOLIC TEACHER BUT NOT TEACHING IN A CATHOLIC SCHOOL? YOUR DIOCESE NEEDS YOU!!!

The Department for Education wants to recruit as many Catholic teachers to its schools as possible and is aware that across the Diocese there are a number of Catholic teachers who are not currently or have never worked in a Catholic school. Sometimes making the transition back to Catholic education can be perceived as being difficult and therefore we would like to offer support to those teachers who are considering returning to the Catholic sector or would like more information on the appointment process in our schools. We are holding an informal session on Saturday 1st July at Blessed John Henry Newman Parish Centre, Knutsford Road, Warrington WA4 1JE from 10.00 a.m. – 12.00 p.m. If you would like to attend or want further information about returning to Catholic education please e-mail Sue Jenkinson on sue.jenkinson@dioceseofshrewsbury.org

Vacancies: The Diocese is seeking to establish a Youth Mission Team and there are two vacancies. Details can be found on the website at <http://www.dioceseofshrewsbury.org/about-us/curia/vacancies> or on the poster on the noticeboard.
