

Canon Harry Stratton – Vigil Mass arrangements

Date and time: 6:30pm, 21st January 2018

Venue: St Paul' Church: at the junction of Bulkeley Road and Clumber Road in Poynton. The presbytery is next to the church at 33 Bulkeley Road (see maps below)

Travel options

There is limited car parking space at St Paul's for the Vigil Mass on Sunday; however, parking will be available

- in the Vernon primary school on Bulkeley Road
- at the civic centre (near Waitrose supermarket).

St Paul's Church is about 20 minutes walk from Poynton Railway Station. There are several local taxi companies, but you will need to arrange these yourself as there is no taxi rank or free phone.

Vigil Mass arrangements

The Mass will be led by Father George Brown.

Mourners: The church is expected to be full, so please aim to arrive early. On arrival you will be welcomed with an Order of Service which will contain the complete Liturgy of this Vigil Mass.

Visiting concelebrant priests: Please come to the presbytery first, where you can change from your street clothes into the vestments you have brought with you. A cup of tea or coffee will be available for you afterwards.

As and when further details of the Vigil Mass are known, they will be added to this document.
