Twenty Seventh Sunday In Ordinary Time 6th & 7th October 2018

Faithful love.

Jesus came to herald the coming of God's Kingdom, a Kingdom where we are called to live in harmony, unity and peace with one another and in God's creation. That was the vision shared in Genesis, and the human expression of that unity is that of man and woman, who give themselves to one another, so that they are no longer two, but one flesh. The faithful love that man and woman are called to is the human experience of the faithful love of the Father for all of His children. Jesus recalls us to recognise that vision, that original plan of God.

In a world where marriage is taken lightly, because divorce is managed easily, Jesus returns to the roots of marriage, to see it as an invitation for man and woman to live in faithful love.

We are aware that so many marriages do break down, that there is a great deal of pain carried by so many, and the Church tries to make provision for human failure and bring support and comfort to those who suffer, while still sharing the vision of faithful love.

Thought for the week

Sandwich every bit of criticism
Between two layers of praise.

We warmly welcome Father Tony Myers & Father Reginald who will be celebrating our masses with us this weekend.

Thank you very much indeed for your generous offerings last week which totalled £485.98p.

CAFOD FAMILY FAST

Why Fast Day? In 1960, a group of Catholic women organised the first Family Fast Day, to support mothers and babies in Dominica who were suffering from malnutrition. They received overwhelming support. From this, CAFOD was born. Elspeth Orchard, one of CAFOD's founders, explained: "We weren't doing anything special, we were just doing what we thought we ought to do, remembering that we are all God's children." By eating simply – perhaps having a bowl of soup instead of a meal – and giving the money you save, you are answering God's call to help our global family.

We will be collecting the envelopes at our masses this weekend 6th & 7th October. If you are a UK tax payer would you please consider Gift Aiding your donation as CAFOD would then receive an additional 25% on your donation at no additional cost to yourself.

If you have forgotten to bring your envelope, then if you could either drop it through the letter box of the presbytery, or bring it next week, it would be much appreciated.

Please note that there will be NO Word & Communion this Thursday 11th October nor Thursday 18th October

We will be having a Carol Service on 8th December in church. Tracey Derbyshire has kindly offered to organise this and is having a meeting in the conservatory Monday, 8th October at 7pm for all those who would like to help arrange this event. If you are interested in being involved please come along or if you cannot make the meeting you can contact Tracey on 07803 153432 or derby878@icloud.com
