Christmas Masses 2022

Fourth Sunday of Advent

Mass: Sunday 18th December at 10am.

Penitential Mass

Mass: Everyone is invited to join Fr Peter Burke on Tuesday 20th December at 7.30pm in the Church.

An Advent Mass of Christian forgiveness and reconciliation with prayers, readings, reflections and hymns with an opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Confession with Fr Peter Burke.

Christmas Family Mass

Saturday 24th December at 5pm.

This Mass is usually well attended and may be very full. There is still the opportunity to bring in your wrapped and labelled nativity Baby Jesus to be blessed and taken home at the end of Mass, so we are reminded on Christmas morning that our greatest gift is God's love for us. Children are invited to dress up as nativity characters such as angels, shepherds, sheep and kings. The Travelling Crib will return to Church. Hymns and carols will be sung during the Mass.

Christmas Mass

Saturday 24th December at 8pm.

Hymns and carols will be sung during the Mass.

Christmas Day Mass

Sunday 25th December at 10am.

Hymns and carols will be sung during the Mass.

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Mass: Sunday 1st January 2023 at 10am.

The Epiphany of the Lord

Vigil Mass: Thursday 5th January 2023.

Mass: Fri 6th Jan 2023 in St Paul's School, Marley Road. All are welcome.

This Holy Day of Obligation celebrates Jesus as Messiah of Israel, Son of God and Saviour of the world, including the adoration of Jesus by the wise men (magi).

Father Peter Burke wishes you all
Christmas Joy and Peace and a Blessed New Year

The parish is pleased to offer you Christmas Masses and related activities this year which you welcome to attend in-person. Masses may be viewed live and are recorded on our Facebook Live stream on bit.ly/SPP33FBL

Covid-19 and 'flu preventative measures for those in St Paul's Church
Parishioners should continue with whatever preventative measures you feel is needed for your safety.
