

Teacher of Religious Education

Salary: MPS

Start Date: January 2024

'Aspire not to have more, but to be more'

Saint Oscar Romero

We are seeking to appoint an inspirational, enthusiastic and committed individual to teach RE within a highly successful department, whilst also contributing to the Catholic life and ethos of the College. Must be able to teach across the age and ability range at Key Stages 3, 4, a willingness or potential to teach Key Stage 5 would be an advantage. The post is suitable for ECTs.

All Hallows has a strong reputation for quality education and academic success. Education is our main purpose and we are very proud of the high standards achieved by our young people, and the excellent progress that each one of them makes, whatever their individual abilities, aptitudes or needs. Our successes are based upon the creation of a culture which provides opportunities for our students, and which helps them feel that they 'can do' and that no task is beyond them.

We have the fantastic job of developing our youngsters into successful learners, confident individuals and responsible citizens. It is our job to help them shine. Together, All Hallows' staff, parents, governors and, most importantly, the young people themselves, make this happen. Everything we do is guided by our five core values of 'Honourable Purpose', 'Respect', 'Compassion', 'Co-operation' and 'Stewardship'. We believe passionately in the potential of all our young people to 'Aspire not to have more but to be more' (Our Mission Statement / Saint Oscar Romero).
